Rethymno, 9/4/2025

Dear participants,

We are pleased to inform you that the proceedings of the International Conference "Revisiting Disinformation: Critical Media Literacy Approaches," will be published, after selection, and they will be available in digital format. Specifically, the journal Ariadne of the Faculty of Philosophy of the University of Crete will dedicate a special issue to them. For your paper to be included in this collective volume, please consider the following:

- The volume with the proceedings will accept original scientific papers in English
- All submissions will be subject to peer review. Accepted papers may be subject to editorial revisions.
- Only papers that have been presented orally at the conference will be included in the proceedings.
- Papers are published under the personal responsibility of the authors concerning their content and linguistic form, copyright e.g. of any illustrative material, etc.
